THE BOAT CAPSIZED,

And Seven Persons Find Watery Graves.

Midnight Tragedy Near Ripley, Ohio—Only Left to Tell the Story.

RIPLEY, O., Dec. 31.—Residents of this place were horrified this morning by the news of an accident that occurred on the river last night, just above here, by which seven persons were drowned. All that are three men named Brooks, Mrs. Turner and her little daughter, a daughter of Gabriel, of this place, a man named Garfield, lived in Kentucky, and a man whose name could not be learned, all colored, who came from Kentucky, after dark in a skiff to cross the river, just as a passenger steamer left our wharf. The skiff, which is heavy and clumsy, could not withstand the swell caused by the steamer, and was capsized into the river. Those who were in it were thrown into the water. Garfield, who is a powerful swimmer, succeeded in reaching the shore. The others were carried down by the current. Mrs. Turner, who was also a good swimmer, had her little daughter in her arms when she was last seen. She could have reached the shore but for the child. Gabriel, of this place, was drowned before any assistance could be rendered. The only witness of the accident was Garfield, but in the darkness it was impossible to save them. Their friends gathered at the river bank and searched for the bodies, but as far without success. A tug, supposed to belong to one of the packets which dredged against the Kentucky shore, is being all that could be found. Most of the unfortunate party lived in Kentucky.

THE COVETED LAND.

Unwise Bill Will Give His Lucy of Homeless the Signal to Stubble Up—Instances on Record.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 30.—A colonial settlement meeting of Oklahoma leaders from Iowa City, Oklahoma, and Arkansas City was vesterday at the headquarters of Lawyer Bell. It was decided to start the boomers up by that time it would be open for what action Congress would have on the Springer bill. An address to the government and people as to their aims and purposes was ordered published. Payne, Bell predicted, will be the next Territory, but in the darkness it was impossible to save them their friends gathered at the river leader and counted the dead bodies, but as far without success. A tug, supposed to belong to one of the packets which dredged against the Kentucky shore, being all that could be found. Most of the unfortunate party lived in Kentucky.

GREEN-LOOKING,

But His Goods Were First-Class—Dangerous Counterfeit Coins Found on a Countryman in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 28.—The other day the police arrested a verdant-appearing chap, who was attempting to sell counterfeit silver dollars to two colored men. He gave his name as William Johnson, and the large number of coins which were found in his possession were so finely executed that it was impossible to distinguish them from genuine silver dollars. They were dropped in the last two good coins, but their composition is still a mystery to the Government officers. A messenger from the United States Secret Service just returned from Lorain County, where he went to investigate Johnson's record. Said he to night: "I was in the village of Brownhelm, where I found a pale and sickly woman living in a little house, poorly furnished, and all the surroundings bearing evidence of abject poverty. This woman is the wife of Wm. H. Wetherbee, alias Wm. Johnson, the bogus silver dollar man. Wetherbee has been known in the community where she lives, but her husband, who earns a scanty living during the summer season by common labor among the farmers there, bore up no enviable reputation. When I told the woman of her husband's arrest she burst into a flood of tears, saying that he had been absent from home recently for nearly a day at a time, and did not know where he was or what was his business. She said, also, that he never treated her cruelly, although he drank at some times. I searched the house and premises, but did not find any bogus coin, and I am satisfied that she knows nothing about the business Wetherbee is engaged in, nor do I think he made the stuff he was selling. The woman is generally looked upon as respectable."

A PHENOMENON.

Steam and Metal Issuing From the Crevices in the Rocky Mountains, a Source of Subterranean Heat.

CHADRONSLAIN, DAK., Dec. 28.—There is no doubt that the great phenomenon in the Black Hills is the result of coal veins burning coal stone. There is a great volume of steam constantly issuing from the crevices accompanied by a strong sulphurous odor, and a light-colored smoke. The earth for many miles is warm. It is also phenomenal to find snow on the ground at night for many miles. At frequent intervals a deep rumbling sound is heard for a long distance. The phenomenon is located on that portion of the Sundak military reservation which was lately thrown open to settlement

A Woman Fined a End.

PARIS, Dec. 28.—Pindo, thief, bel alcohol, human fiend incarnate on his own confession, died on the guillotine in the yard of Mazas Agostani, escorted to the death by a strong guard of police and a light-colored smoke. The earth for many feet about is warm. It is also phenomenal to find snow on the ground at night for many miles. At frequent intervals a deep rumbling sound is heard for a long distance. BLASTING POWDER EXPLODES

Burning Two Houses and Injuring Seven Men, Three of Whom Will Die.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 30.—A terrific explosion of blasting powder occurred on Water Row, following up to H. M. Pritchett Company, and four houses were destroyed, and the adjacent buildings shaken to the foundation. The cause of the explosion is not known now, since a spark from a pipe caused the explosion. There was a horrific explosion and seven of the men were frightfully injured, two of them will die. The dead and injured are Joseph Cromwell, Polk Pleasure, Joseph Cooper, Stephen Jones, Thomas Scherill, Andrew Lick and Richard Bolsel. Both the men seriously injured, the flesh being almost torn from their bodies. The wound is fatal. It is supposed he was standing across the legs when the explosion occurred. Joseph Thomas had a terrible wound in the knee cut off, and amputation is possibly necessary. The others are injured principally about the face and body, but with the exception of Young their injuries are not serious.

Ex-Senator Murdered.

RICHMOND, Dec. 31.—Hon. Jesse Wright, died to-day, aged 72 years. Of the heart, aged eighty-five years. He was a native of South Carolina, and represented the State in the United States Senate for two terms preceding the rebellion.

Bald Knobbers Caught.

OZARK, Mo., Dec. 29.—Two of the notorious Bald Knobbers and five of their confederates escaped from jail here. Unknown persons from the outside for them. The jailer was overpowered, the would-be rescuers and cells, and released the prisoners.

"Mamma Will Never See Me Again."

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Dec. 30.—Mrs. Mitchell, of Thomaston, aged sixteen, committed suicided for going skating, left home for Bloomington, saying to a friend that she would never see me again. Good has never been seen since. She was a beautiful girl and villages are being searched.

Family Poisoned.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 31.—The family of Ira Warford, who lives at Mt. Elmo, one of the suburbs of Chattanooga, were poisoned to-day by eating hash at dinner. It is not known whether the cheese was poisoned, or whether it was taken from a former meal. Warford is dying, and all of the family are sick, but in a very serious condition. Two children will both recover.

—A farmer had a son who showed no special aptitude for study, and he was puzzled what to do with him. He concluded to try an experiment, so he locked the boy in a room in which there were only a few apples and a dollar. A few minutes later he stole quietly to the room. He had made up his mind that if he found the boy eating the apples he would make a good farmer. If he were reading the Bible he should be trained for the pulpit, and if he had taken the money his success as a broker. His father thought, was assured. Upon entering the room he found the boy sitting upon the Bible, using the apples as weights on the dollar in his pocket. The boy became an able politician.

—The dear children were playing at horse railroad. Tommy suddenly exclaimed: "Look here! we've forgotten something. We can't go on unless we buy up an alderman."—N. Y. Ledger.

SAVED BY A DOG,

Terrible Struggle With Two Burglars.

An Omaha Saloon-Keeper Shot and Almost Beaten to Death.

OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 27.—Christ Kalmbach, who runs a saloon in the suburbs, had a remarkable tussle with two burglars who tried to rob him last night. Just as he was about to close up a man entered and asked for a deck of cards. Kalmbach refused to let him have them, as it was too late. The stranger then thrust a revolver in his face and told him to throw up his hands. "Yes I will," said Kalmbach, and seized the intruder. The struggle that followed found Kalmbach in the forehead above the left eye. Although the pounder bled him freely, and the blood was pouring over his face, Kalmbach seized the man by the throat and choked him into submission. He had thrown the assailant on the floor when he was surprised by the entrance of another man, who began hitting him over the head with a revolver, cutting the scalp fright fully at every blow. Kalmbach's dog, which heard the scuffle in another room, here entered and proceeded to devour the man's leg. While Kalmbach devoted his attention to villain No. 1. He finally succeeded in throwing him through a window and the other man broke loose from the dog and joined in the fight of his partner. Kalmbach then turned to the bones of a neighbor, who went for a doctor. The latter was carried about an inch from the point of entrance and a few inches to the rear. He had fourteen cuts on his Midnight Tragedy Near Ripley, in Ohio County, Tells the Story.

RIPLEY, O., Dec. 31.—Residents of this place were horrified this morning by the news of an accident that occurred at daylight, just above here, by which seven persons were drowned. At that time three men named Brooks, Mrs. Terrell, her little daughter, a daughter of Mrs. Cloyd, of this place, who is married and lived in Kentucky, and a man whose name could not be learned, all colored, crossed from the Kentucky shore in a little flat to cross the river, just as is customary. Reaching mid-stream the boat struck a heavy load caught under the water, and the current was strong enough to capsize the little craft. The seven persons were thrown into the water. Some of them managed to get hold of the boat, but the current carried it down the river, and one by one they sank beneath the swift current of the river, and they sank beneath the waves and were drowned before any assistance could be rendered. The cries were heart-rending, but in the darkness it was impossible to save them. Their floating bodies in the river to-day and searched for their bodies, but so far without success, except in the case of Mrs. Terrell, whose body was found lodged against the Kentucky shore, being all that could be found. WICHITA, KAN., Dec. 30.—In enthusiastic meeting of Oklahoma boomers in the towns of Southern Kansas was held here yesterday at the headquarters of Lawyer Bill. It was decided to start February 1 as by that time it would be known what action Congress would take on the Springer bill, in addition to the investment and people as to their aims and purposes was ordered published in the same paper from which the first call issued. Letters of inquiry from all over the United States and Canada, and from persons now have arrested over fifteen thousand people, who will be able to move on the day named. Their arrival in this home was present and said that thousands of people were camped along the line of the Santa Fe road awaiting the arrival of soldiers are now just outside of its chosen City, and K Troop, Fifth Cavalry, will be ordered there Monday. Many of the negroes have put their homes upon wheels and moved them upon choice lots of the country. Heavy guards of cavalry will be by the soldiers to drive back invaders. Pawnee Bill will have charge of the negroes exclusively and has already begun. His station not southern colonies. All will meet at Oklahoma City and proceed in a body to their claims. Advices yesterday from the Territory are that a large number of land seekers and scouts of settlement. Five of the former and four of the latter were injured, but the fighting was not stopped.

BLASTING POWDER EXPLODES

Burning Four Houses and Causing Severe Mortality.

Mrs. Guy of Whom Will Die.

EVANSVILLE, Dec. 30.—About 9 o'clock this morning three houses broke out in a row, belonging to H. C. Frick Coke Company, and the entire houses were destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been started by the explosion of blasting powder. The house in which the explosion occurred was occupied by Policeman Frank Fleming, Joseph Vaccaro, Negro, and Mrs. Guy, a widow. Fleming and Vaccaro escaped without injury, but Mrs. Guy was severely injured. The flesh being almost torn from her body. Andrew Lodge and Mrs. Guy's daughter, Mrs. Hughes, were also injured, the flesh being almost torn from their legs, right arms and hands. It is supposed he was standing between the legs when the explosion occurred, and the force of the blast from the mouth of the mine blew both legs off, and amputation is probably necessary. The others are severely injured, but not dangerously, and it is thought that with the exception of Mrs. Guy their injuries are not serious.

PARIS, Dec. 28. Prado, thief, bel ul-ligerent, and fiend, was one of the seven boastful admissions died on the guillotine this the murder of Marie Aguetant, concubine of Prado, and the murder and hideous cries, newspaper men, actors, lawyers and politicians who possessed to the ruins. Prado died with much the same bravado as he displayed in his former life on the scaffold. The scene was much more revolting, however, as his former victim figured in the work of M. Deibler. In fifty seconds from his appearance at the prison gate Prado was in the basket of the knife.

Frisco Has a Democratic Mayor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—The recount of votes cast for mayor in the last election was commenced this morning. At the close of the recount Judge Coffey of the Superior Court, declared E. B. Pond (democrat) legally elected mayor by 1,047 majority. Independent candidate for mayor and the man who had demanded the recount, made a gain of 1,000 votes, but not enough to elect him over Pond.

Splinter and Burning-Needle.

SAVED BY A DOG.

Terrible Struggle With Two Burglars.

An Omaha Saloon-Keeper Shot and Almost Beaten to Death.

OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 27.—Christ Kalmbach, who runs a saloon in the suburbs, had a remarkable tussle with two burglars who tried to rob him last night. Just as he was about to close up a man entered and asked for a deck of cards. Kalmbach refused to let him have them, as it was too late. The stranger then thrust a revolver in his face and told him to throw up his hands. "Yes I will," said Kalmbach, and seized the latter. The latter fired, the ball striking Kalmbach in the forearm, shattering the bone. Although the powder almost blinded him, and the blood was pouring over his face, Kalmbach closed with Wm. Wetherbee, and a fierce struggle for the floor ensued. Kalmbach, in the fight, was thrown heavily which had already severely burned him. It was high time to think of his own life now as he had rendered possible the saving of scores of others. To escape was impossible, as through the glass walls of fire surrounding him. Stevens made a dash for the side of the steamer which, although frightfully burned, succeeded in reaching it. Although a moving mass of flame he did not lose his presence of mind, but jumped into the river and struggled to the bank, where he was pulled out, cruelly burned and exhausted from his efforts. Givens now lies at the hospital in this city with his eyes burned out, and with several other severe injuries believed to be fatal. No man ever performed a more heroic act than that of Givens, and it is a matter of interest to see with what gallantry and humanity should have cost him so dear. The total loss of life by the burning of the Hanna is now placed at twenty-four.

HERO OF THE HANNA.

Brave Act at James Givens, Which Saved Many Lives, but Will Probably Cost His Own.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 28.—The story of the gallantry on the part of the crew of the steamer John H. Hanna, which was burned near Plaquemine yesterday, is told to-day by the survivors who have been brought here. One story makes James Givens the hero of the occasion. Givens was one of the crew. When the steamer touched the bank and shouted away, and Pilot Zolles left the wheel and sprang overboard, Givens quickly realized that the salvation of all on board depended upon the Hawser being brought back to the bank. At the time the pilot-house was surrounded by the flames. Nothing daunted, the brave fellow sprang to the wheel, brought the steamer's head again to the bank, and in doing so may her been hooked the wheel in a proper position. While he was doing this he was surrounded by flames, and when he was rescued from the water he was found to be terribly burned from head to foot. Russell presided, and made a happy opening speech in which he said all that fell to him to say in the matter. He referred to those present who had come from peal-ing of him from the walls of fire surrounding him. Givens made a dash for the side of the steamer and, although frightfully burned, succeeded in reaching it. Although a moving mass of flame he did not lose his presence of mind, but jumped into the river and struggled to the bank, where he was pulled out, cruelly burned and exhausted from his efforts. Givens now lies at the hospital in this city with his eyes burned out, and with several other severe injuries believed to be fatal. No man ever performed a more heroic act than that of Givens, and it is a matter of interest to see with what gallantry and humanity should have cost him so dear. The total loss of life by the burning of the Hanna is now placed at twenty-four.

The Flour Gave Way.

YORK, PA., Dec. 26.—While a Christmas entertainment was being held last evening in the hall at East Prospect, this county, the building collapsed, and three hundred people were hurled with the broken timbers from the second to the first floor. To add to the terror of the situation the stove fell to the ground and set fire to the wreck. A large number were injured, some of them seriously, but the struggle to secure their intelligence and presence of mind prevented a panic in their midst. To their action in the direction of the struggle to secure their intelligence and presence of mind prevented a panic in their midst. To their action is due the fact that no lives were lost. The building was owned by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and was used for lodge purposes and for public entertainments. The loss will be heavy, as the building is not insured.

TARIFF REFORM.

Banquet of the Massachusetts Tariff Reform League.

A Brilliant Political Gathering—President Cleveland's Letter of Regret—Secretary Fairchild's Views on the Tariff.

THE BANQUET.

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—The annual banquet of the Massachusetts Tariff Reform League, the last meeting previous to the Hotel Vendome last evening proved to be one of the most brilliant political gatherings of the season. The most prominent guest of the evening was Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild. Among the others were President Eliot, of Harvard, Colonel T. W. Higginson, Hon. P. A. Collins, Hon. John F. Andrew, Hon. Henry L. Pierce, Hon. George S. Hale, C. R. Codman, Hon. Moorfield Storey, Hon. Edwin W. Stoughton, Congressman Burnett, W. E. Russell, Hon. Nathan Matthews, Jr. Mr. Russell presided, and made a happy opening speech in which he said all that fell to him to say in the matter. He referred to those present who had come from peal-ing of him from the walls of fire surrounding him. Givens made a dash for the side of the steamer and, although frightfully burned, succeeded in reaching it. Although a moving mass of flame he did not lose his presence of mind, but jumped into the river and struggled to the bank, where he was pulled out, cruelly burned and exhausted from his efforts. Givens now lies at the hospital in this city with his eyes burned out, and with several other severe injuries believed to be fatal. No man ever performed a more heroic act than that of Givens, and it is a matter of interest to see with what gallantry and humanity should have cost him so dear. The total loss of life by the burning of the Hanna is now placed at twenty-four.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.

Messrs Sherman Hoar and others, committee: GENTLEMEN—I am sorry that my health will not let me be present at the annual dinner of the Massachusetts Tariff Reform League, to-morrow with you. This is not merely a formal and common-place expression of regret. If you knew how much I should enjoy meeting the members of your League, and how much I desire to be to express in person my appreciation of the patriotic purpose for which you have organized and are earnestly attached, and the admirable way in which you perform. Referring to the circular letter of invitations that they are able, loudly and confidently, to attack the strongest citizen in the land, and greed, Our institutions were constructed in the belief that the people would be able to keep operations adjusted to the touch of national virtue and intelligence, and that the selfish and such gentlemen must be kept in the background. The people have been led astray and how great is the task before us in the restoration of the true spirit. To lose faith in the intelligence of the people is to despair of the republic. Some of the struggles to arouse their intelligence and to call forth their patriotism seem to me to be not only long as many years ago as the struggle for which alone can guide their generation; but the struggle is the same with the old enemy selfishness and greed.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.,

FRIDAY, : : : JAN. 4, 1889.

Viva Voce Voting.

Kentucky is the only State in the Union which adheres to viva voce voting. All the other States vote with the ballot.

The COURIER for one, having witnessed for years the operation of both plans, declares its preference for the ballot system for many reasons, chief among which is the belief on our part that the ballot guarantees the freest and most independent suffrage. To be sure, there is an air of manliness about proclaiming with the living voice at the polls who you are for or against, as Kentuckians do, whether voting for President of the United States or constable of a county precinct, but experience has taught that this "manliness" attached more particularly to the strong, the powerful, and the rich, and that the poor the dependent, and may-be oppressed, are more frequently thereby embarrassed, intimidated, and from various causes prevented from voting their real judgment and choice.

2nd. When two or more candidates are in the field, the viva voce system gives undue advantage to schemers, combinations and rings, because able to know the vote at any time, the schemers can make a rush on the polls, and soon have the vote where citizens are compelled to forego their real choice because there is made to appear no chance for him, and choose between candidates neither of whom he may think qualified or deserving.

If ballot-voting is ever adopted, what is known as the Australian system, uniform ballots, furnished by the State, and polls arranged so that only the voter and officers of election are present when the ballot is deposited, should also be adopted. This is full of strong points and arguments.

The Clinton Democrat invites discussion of needed amendments to the constitution. What says the Democrat?

TATE'S RITAL.

We want no more men of Tate's stripe filling offices in Kentucky. Give us a practical business man, fresh from the people. Let the people have a choice in his selection. We have no favorite in office, but would be glad to hear some suggestion.—[Paducah Standard.

Just so, but how to guard against the selection of another such a man as Tate, is easier talked of than done. No man had a better record, was more popular, or more highly endorsed than Dick Tate, and yet he fell. If people can not be guided by a safe record and character who can they trust, and for whom can they vote! Our own conclusion in this Tate was an honest man, and deserved his good name up to several years before his fall, and that the mistake of the people was in trusting him too long. Secondly, those officials whose duty it was to settle with the Treasurer, examine his books, and count his cash, were grossly neglectful of their duty. The Democrats who elected Tate from time to time, are not to blame, for his record, as they were permitted to see it, was good, and hence they had a right to trust him, but those officials whose duty it was, under the law, to make settlement with him, and did it not, are to blame, and will be held rigidly responsible. The defalcation of State officials results from human weakness, and not from any political party teachings, and therefore not rightly chargeable to the party to which the defaulter belongs, but done the less it has the effect of injuring the party to which such a one owes his election. And no matter who or what it hurts, the people want to exercise all the judgment and caution possible to enable them to select an honest and capable State Treasurer.

THE colored people are making an organized movement to have ex-Senator B. K. Bruce, (colored,) given a place in President Harrison's Cabinet. They claim that the colored people elected Harrison, and therefore that their race is entitled to this recognition. There is much truth in this claim, for of the white vote in the United States, Cleveland received more than one million more votes than Harrison.

EGYPTIAN advices state that the Nile, which should be in flood between August and December, has this year been unusually low and that the waters are already receding. In the Delta the results promise to be particularly disastrous, the agricultural welfare depending upon irrigation as well as drainage, and as the irrigating ditches have not been filled, the people are threatened with starvation.

SENATOR GEORGE, of Mississippi, in an interview with a Courier Jounral reporter last evening, said of the election: "I was afraid all along that the President would be sold out and trailed off in New York. I think his defeat was desired by Hewitt, and while he may have voted for him, I believe Hewitt was willing to sacrifice all his own chances, to see the President beaten for re-election."

A TREMENDOUS big thing in the way of a monster gun is being made in England. It is to be a 200-tonner, and is to be made at the Woolwich Arsenal. The special machinery required to lift it upon its carriage will cost quite $110,000. Its projectile is to weigh two tons, and when it is mounted on some point of the English coast it is expected to drop into the sea 1,000 pounds of shrapnel every five minutes to a distance of fifteen miles.

COLONIZING THE NEGRO.

The newspapers are giving much space to the discussion of the race problem, or what to do with the negro, the majority sentiment of which appears to be in favor of some colonization scheme. Congress has done nothing to help solve this vexed problem. Grant, while President, anticipating race troubles in the South, sought to acquire San Domingo as a future home for the negro, but this proved impracticable, pleasing neither the colored or white people.

The present drift tends toward colonizing the negro in the Indian territory, and contiguous territory, setting it apart exclusively for his possession, rule and control, under the protection of the United States Government, of which it will remain a part and parcel, precisely as any other State.

The Moores, who were the original settlers of Spain, thus emigrated from their country, and left Spain to the possession of the Spaniards. And it was probably better both for the Spaniards and the Moors, that the separation thus took place, for if they had continued to occupy the same territory, a continued race war, feuds and strifes, would have prevailed, whereas they separated in peace. The same was true of the Hebrews in leaving Egypt.

Heretofore, the white people of the South have been practically in the direct attitude on this question, from the fact that sectional feeling in the North would misconstrue and misunderstand anything they do or say on the subject. Neither have the colored people of the South been any conspicuous part in any colonization project. They have their innate attachment for the Southern climate, and are loath to take hold of any exodus or colonization scheme.

Time works wonders, and it may be that the time is nearer upon us than many calculate, when the colored people of the South may feel it their interest, under the Government encouragement, to find homes for themselves in the beautiful and magnificent country now known as the Indian territory, where they can enjoy peace and prosperity, and work out their own development, without fear or hindrance.

THE SUPPRESSED VOTE.

The assertion that the negroes of all Republican states are from one any considerable portion of them are Republicans absolutely false, or they can not afford to vote as they please, or, if allowed to vote their votes are not counted as cast [illegible] Republican.

In Kentucky, we don't believe that a half dozen respectable Republicans, white or black, can be found, who will assert that in any way the negroes' right to vote is abridged or interfered with and yet the charge is continues in the Republican papers that the negro vote in Kentucky is "suppressed," or in some way unfairly dealt with. This is as false as of our own knowledge know. The editor of the Republican can probably testify as to Tennessee but of his own knowledge he can not be a competent witness as to elections in other States. This brings us to the point that the framers of our Government wisely left the elective franchise to the control of the communities at interest—that is to the States. And there it must be left. The experience of the Reconstruction period under Republican rule demonstrated the wisdom of the local self-government plan, and Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Arthur, Republican Presidents, bowed to it. It is equally a waste of words to wraugle over alleged election frauds in New York or Mississippi, Indiana or Louisiana, for it must end in partisan wrangle. There is no doubt great corruption in the New York elections, but it is because an element of the electors are corrupt, and not because they are disloyal to the Federal Government. No voters could be bought in New York or Indiana, if some voters were not corrupt enough to sell And, if Republican leaders buy enough votes to carry those States, it is simply a misfortune to the Democracy to realize that some of its members are corrupt enough to sell to them. So, possibly, it might be reversed in some of the Southern States. The virue and intelligence of the voters is the only protection against such corruptions.

CONGRESS AND REFORMS.

Considering how slow and unbusinessally stupid Congress is it is showing a laugiable activity in consequence of the recent elections. Congressmen have concluded that the people are content, and seem to be acting upon the principle of what the hoosiers to go should be done quickly. There has been a greater demolition manifested during the last few days to accomplish something, than has been seen for years. Members are giving notice that they will call up this or that measure for immediate consideration and action, and are introducing bills of merit every day. It is a pity that these fellows waited until they were hanged over the head before going to work. The time now so short that but little can be accomplished at best, while if the time that has been spent in idleness, or worse than idleness, had been utilized as it now seems to be the intention of Congress to utilize its dying hours, a vast deal might have been done.

NO INVESTIGATION

In the race war at Wahak, Miss., there being no one killed except whites, the New York Times says there will be no congressional investigation of the affair, from the fact that the Republican extremists can make no political capital out of it. Another reason is that this riot occured after the Presidential election and not before.

—Careful investigation relating to the burning of the Kate Adams on the 23rd ult., shows that it was caused by a red-hot poker hauled out of the fire-doors in front of the furnace the end of which fell on a sack of cotton seed as the fireman let it drop on the inboard side. The blaze ran up the side of the cotton, and the fireman tried hard to quench it with his hands, but in a moment it was beyond control. The information has been gained by the testimony of the deck crew and firemen, taken before the official inspectors at Memphis last week. The arrival number of people lost by the fire was only about fourteen.

—Next August the people of Kentucky will elect a Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and we suppose the Hon. Thos. C. Poore, of Hickman county, will be a candidate for the position. In truth and in fact, he has been the Clerk for the now expiring term, for upon him has devolved all the duties of the position. There is not a more competent man in the State, and if capacity and qualification is my recommendation, certainly Col. Poore deserves an election.

—Kentucky has just won a signal victory in a series of twenty-one intercontinental Mobile between Alabama and Kentucky thinkers, for $1,000 a side and $100 extra on each difficulty. This may be a mere sample, but if our roosters could have won in New York and Indiana, the COURIER could have crowed louder and longer.

—An exchange says that it's about as hard to find a girl whose marriage is announced in the newspapers who isn't "beautiful and accomplished," as it is to find a man who has lately died who wasn't "honored and respected by all who knew him."

—A young negro named Clarence Tilghman, was arrested, Monday, for attempting to wreck the railroad train. He had driven spikes between the joints of the rails. There was no serious damage done.

—Payne, the murderer of Brown, who broke jail at Troy some weeks since, is still at large. A reward of $500 is offered for his apprehension, and our opinion is that it will bring him, too.—[Union City Anticlone.

—We learn that Eld. R. S. Fleming, of the Baptist Church, will shortly move to Hickman, having rented a residence in East Hickman.

THE CONTESTS.

[Courier-Journal]

Not less than a dozen contests for seats in the next House are already outlined, though but one notice -that of Hartauff (Rep.) against Whiting (Dem) of the Seventh Michigan district—has been filed with the Clerk of the House. The defeated Republicans who hope to get into the House because their party has the majority are apt to find numerous stumbling blocks in their paths, the chiefest of which will be the very narrow margin by which the Republicans hold that body. The Democrats are not apt to permit that margin to be increased, except where the right absolutely demands it.

AN OLD DOCUMENT.

CITY HALL, Sept 9, 1869.
CALL MEETING.

Council met. Present, Mayor J. M. Durham; Councilmen L. Case, J. Kirkpatrick, J. F. Norris and A. H Payne.

The Mayor informed the Council that he had received them at the urgent solicitations of the citizens of Hickman in taking into consideration the propriety of sending delegates to represent the city in the Railroad Convention to be held by parties interested in the early completion of the Iron Mountain Railroad in the city of St. Louis on the 29th of September, 1869.

Councilman Case offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Hickman, that A. D Kingman, Jno. A. Gardner, Jno. A. Lauderdale and J. Sanders, be and they are hereby nominated, constituted and appointed delegates and agents for the city of Hickman to take into consideration the propriety of sending delegates to represent the city in the Railroad Convention to be held by parties interested in the early completion of the Iron Mountain Railroad in the city of St. Louis on the 29th of September, 1869.

Resolved, That the said A. D. Kingman, Jno. A. Gardner, Jno. A. Lauderdale and J Sanders be and they are hereby nominated, constituted appointed delegates and agents for the said city of Hickman to represent her in said Railroad Convention, and they are hereby authorized to pledge to the Board of Directors, or other persons having authority to locate and build the said Iron Mountain Railroad that they will locate and build it within a reasonable time from the 1st of March, 1870, to some point on the Mississippi river opposite the said city of Hickman as near as practicable.

On motion, adjourned until regular meeting.

J. M. DURHAM, Mayor.
B. R. WALKER, C. Clerk.
C. L. RANDLE, Clerk, pro tem.

I, C. L. Randle, City Clerk, pro tem. for the city of Hickman, certify that the foregoing is a true, correct and full and correct copy of the proceedings of the City Council, had at a call meeting held in the City Hall, he said city, on the 9th day of September, 1869, as appears from the minutes of said meeting in this office

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and the seal of the city of Hickman, this September 25th, 1869.

C. L. RANDLE, Clerk, pro tem.

If Hickman in 1869 was willing to give $75,000 to secure a trans-Mississippi railroad, with a $50,000 railroad debt then on us, how much more are we now justified, free of debt, to give $50,000 to secure a like connection, and also a new railroad on this side!

THERE is a proposition in Missouri to "farm out" the convicts of that state. The proposal is met with the unanimous and vigorous denunciation of the press over there, who denounce the practice as barbarie and uncivilized,

GENUINE HYDROPHOBIA.

Police officer Henry Fehle, of St. Louis, died a horrible death from hydrophobia, last week. Last September, while walking his beat, he was bitten on the right leg by a dog, but thought nothing of the wound. Last week his leg began to swell, and he was taken down with violent symptoms of hydrophobia. He passed from one convulsion into another, and finally died in great agony. Dr. Bernsay, who attended him, says the case was genuine hydrophobia.

THE TEST OF BEAUTY.

[Pittsburg Capital.]

A controversy is on hand between New York and San Francisco newspapers as to the beauty of the women of the two localities, each claiming precedence. It has been suggested, and the suggestion is well considered, that Kentucky women be taken as the standard, and that those who approach nearest to the women of Kentucky in beauty, be awarded the distinction of holding second place among the beautiful women of the United States.

RAINBOW PARTY.

There was a Rainbow Party given by Miss Mollie Baldwin, on Monday eve, the closest old year. The parlor had been decorated for the occasion by a paint crew. The invited guests assembled at the early hour of half past 8 o'clock. After a few moments of pleasant conversation, the hostess surprised the young gentlemen by passing the card receptacle, which contained cards bearing each young lady's name. Upon the name of Miss Mattie Rose, they according to the name of cards, gave to their aprons corresponding with the names they had drawn. Everything having selected, shades of the rainbow, then the secret was revealed to them. Taking needle, thread and thimble in hand, which they used "very gracefully," were much enthused over the sewing, trying to win the prize. When they had finished the task there was much excitement and amusement. It was decided by Mrs. Haltzer that Mr. W. A. Dodds did the best work. Music was then rendered; also, game enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Then, before the merry party realized the fact, the New Year had ushered upon them. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson and Miss Emma Thompson.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis and Miss Lou Postelthwaite.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dodds and Miss Bettie Moseley.
Mr. and Mrs. Sol Dodds and Miss Mollie Oliver.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time on experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always comes at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with something "just as good" as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Relief is certain to follow, and many who use it think it almost miraculous the way it counteracts and cures Throat, Bronchial and Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at 50 cents. Large bottles $1.00. Call at Coughlin's Drug Store.

—The Leap Year Mask Ball, given by the young ladies of Hickman, was pronounced by all the nicest affair of the kind ever witnessed in Hickman society. The costumes were appropriate and beautiful, the music good, and everything as happy and unconscious as marriage bells. Our reporter failed to furnish a list of the characters represented. Miss Louise Deutschbrick represented the Hickman COURIER, and our reporter cut thanks for the occasion.

—Miss Anna Palmer, returned to Princeton College, Tuesday last, having passed the Holidays at home.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbidge Munday, Esq., Justice City, Ilas Co., Tex. says: "I am well Electric Bitters with most satisfactory My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice but was entirely cured of the troubles by the use of Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. T. J. Wilkerson, of Dover City, Ky., adds this testimony: "Electric Bitters positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will surely do as well as cures all Malarial Diseases and for all Kidney, Liver and Blood Disorders it stands unequaled. Price 50c and $1.00. at J. W. Cowgill's Drug Store.

—Hickman is not booming, booming or kicking, but she is, in the same, forging steadily ahead in the march of improvement. Just a little more driving power, and the pace will be fast enough. Meantime, let us all keep our shoulders to the wheel and our faces towards the morning. We need more railroads, more manufacturing establishments, more thrifty, progressive stock and citizens, and Hickman goes to work a first prosperous town. Shall we have them? The Courier says yes! Let best efforts to this end and bespeak the kindly aid and favors of its readers.

—Large audiences, it is said, have been enjoying Prof. R. B. Arnold's Sun Picture Store, at City Hall. The scenes are taken from Bible texts, and interspersed with artistic views. If picture travels through the Holy Land, views of the City of Jerusalem, and other Bible cities and localities, are not only interesting but very instructive. Besides, his children's band furnish good choice and instrumental music.

—It would be a misfortune to Paducah, from any cause, to lose Charlie Reed from the Mayoralty. Paducah's new life, activity and prosperity is coeval with his entrance to that office, and the enterprise of to-day that has supplanted the old fogy Paducah of the past, is largely attributable to the spirit he has infused into public affairs. The approaching race is to be upon closely drawn political party lines, and the chances are about even. Charlie Reed, to the lead, will fasten the good will and confidence of Western Kentucky toward Paducah as the metropolis of this section.

—An important change will occur on the first of the year in the ownership of the Mississippi & Tennessee Railroad, running from Memphis to Grenada. It has been practically under the control of the Illinois Central for some time, but now it is said will become the absolute property of that road. Some have said that the building of the Cairo & Memphis road, via Hickman, was dependent upon the Illinois Central obtaining absolute ownership of the road to Grenada, and, if that was true, it appears that the work can now go forward.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofula, Syphilitic or Mercurial Diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal.

THE RAILROAD.

ELECTION, JAN. 7TH, 1889.

READ, AND SEE WHAT YOU VOTE UPON.

PROPOSITION.

The following proposition was submitted to the Council by Hon. W. U. Bullitt, Attorney for the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad Company:

"The Paducah, Hickman & Southern Railroad Company propose to build a steel rail, standard gauge railroad from Paducah to Hickman, and establish a depot within the city of Hickman, and extend the same to a crossing of the Mississippi river south or near said city; thence on the most feasible line out to connect with some important system of Railroads being operated on said west side of said river at or near the route to be constructed and operated, upon condition the city of Hickman will subscribe to, and take One hundred shares at one hundred dollars per share, of the capital stock of said Road, and shares to be paid for by said city in its bonds, with interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, both to be made payable at some banking House or Trust Company in the City of New York, the bonds to be made payable thirty years after date. But said bonds are not to be delivered until said line of Railroad is completed and trains running through said city on said Road, and until 1st of January, 1891.

W. U. BULLITT,
Atty for P., H. & S. R. R.

ORDINANCE

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Hickman, Ky. That said City of Hickman by virtue of the authority in it vested, by the terms of the charter of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad company and its own corporate authority and powers, subscribe for Five Hundred (500) shares of the capital stock of said railroad company, raised at one hundred dollars ($100.00) each share to be paid for in fifty bonds of said city of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, said bonds to be payable at the end of thirty years from the date thereof and to bear interest from date at the rate of five per centum per annum payable semi-annually, the principal and interest of said bonds to be made payable at some banking house or trust company in the city of New York.

Said bonds to be issued by virtue of, and in conformity with, the provisions of the authority granted in the charter of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad company aforesaid.

The bonds to be signed by the Mayor and Clerk of said city, with interest coupons attached, which are to be signed only by the City Clerk.

Said fifty bonds, when issued and delivered as herein provided, are to be received by said Railroad company at par, and in full payment for the said five hundred shares of the capital stock of Road.

And nothing herein contained shall be held to levy and collect from the tax payers of said city an amount sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as the same matures, as it forbids for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity.

That the said subscription of stock is made on the following terms, to-wit: The Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad company shall construct, or cause to be constructed, a well built steel rail, standard gauge Railroad from Paducah into the corporate limits of the city of Hickman, and establish a depot within said city, and extend its said Railroad to a point of crossing of the Mississippi river levee or near the said city of Hickman, and construct, or cause to be constructed, the said Railroad from the said west side of said river to a connection with some important system of roads being operated on said West side of said river in connection with said Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad.

The bonds aforesaid shall not be delivered to said Railroad company until said line of Railroad shall have been completed and trains running through said city, thereon, and until the 1st of January, 1891. But upon the completion of said Railroad, as aforesaid, the Mayor shall cause to be executed and delivered to said company the city bonds provided for in the ordinance in full payment of the subscription to the capital stock by said city, as subscribed, and the bonds shall bear interest from the date of the completion of said Railroad as aforesaid, and not before and from thirty date of January 1st, 1891, if connected thereafter and from the date of said connection, and shall be payable at such time as the Mayor and Council may direct.

This ordinance shall not go into effect until the same shall have been submitted to said voters on affirmatively by a majority of the qualified voters of said city; and for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the qualified voters of said city upon said proposition, it is hereby directed and shall be the duty of the Mayor to order an election to be held on the 7th of January, 1889, the same being the day of the regular election for city officers, at which election each voter offering to vote, shall be required to have for or against the subscription to the capital stock of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad company, as above recommended, accordingly. The election shall be held, returns made, and the result ascertained, in the manner prescribed by the city charter for holding elections generally, so far as applicable to this sort of election. In the event a majority of all the qualified voters of said city vote in favor of said subscription, the said city shall, by the Mayor, proceed to make said subscription of five hundred shares to the capital stock of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad company, and, in case the subscription is not voted for by a majority of the qualified voters of said city, this ordinance shall be null and void and of no effect.

ELECTION NOTICE!

The qualified voters of the City of Hickman, Fulton County, Kentucky, are hereby notified that, by virtue of an act of the Legislature of Kentucky, approved April 7th, 1888, and by ordinances adopted by the Common Council of the City of Hickman, at the regular meeting held on said City Hall, Dec. 4th, 1888, an election is ordered to be held at the City Hall, on Monday, the 7th, 1889, to take the sense of the qualified voters upon the question of the issue of Hickman subscribing the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars to the Capital Stock of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad Company, as authorized by said act of the Legislature, and of said Common Council, at which said election each voter will be asked the following question, "Are you for or against the subscription of Fifty Thousand Dollars to the Capital Stock of the Paducah, Hickman and Southern Railroad Company?" and the vote will be recorded accordingly by the answer of each voter. Said election to be held within legal hours, and by the officers appointed to hold the regular City election. Dec. 7, 1888.

W. L. McCUTCHEN, City Clerk.

CHRISTMAS SERMON.

Discourse by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the Distinguished Divine.

The Little Babe, Wrapped in Swaddling Clothes, Lying in a Manger.

The subject of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage's sermon last Sunday was, "Barnlike Birthplaces." His text was: "And she laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn." Luke ii., 7.

At the right from one of the galleries of the sky a chant broke. To an ordinary observer there was no reason for such a celestial demonstration. A poor man and wife—travelers, Joseph and Mary by name—had lodged in an outhouse of an unimportant village. The symptoms of coming to be a mother. Angels above were watching with great interest the coming of the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. A multitude of the heavenly host."—Luke ii., 13, 13.
